Become a Premier Customer today for free and receive our highest level of membership that GUARANTEES you priority response.

Simply register now with no fees to pay and receive a free gift worth £9.77

To announce the launch of the Mulgas Premier Guarantee card, we are offering you the opportunity to register for free; with no annual subscriptions or fees to pay. In return for your recognised loyalty and being a valued Mulgas customer, becoming a Premier member will ensure that you receive priority service at all times.

Simply by becoming a member, we will also offer you an amazing 10% discount on replacement boilers and new bathrooms that you may purchase in the future.

Picture this, imagine your boiler has broken down in the middle of winter and it is freezing outside. A plumber's busiest time of the year. By being a member we will ensure that you jump the queue and receive full priority for receiving service. Plus, we will guarantee that there will be no additional callout fees, like many other companies charge when it's cold and busy.

So, at last, no more searching the internet or flicking through the Yellow Pages and gambling on a company that you have never heard of. Now, by registering, and simply calling Mulgas on 0845 460 4800 quoting your membership number, you will receive the quality, service, value, speedy response and attention you expect.

In addition we will send you a free gift worth £9.97. For your piece of mind, a Carbon Monoxide detector is yours. Plus, we will send you two free reports on the danger of Carbon Monoxide, all free of charge!!

This is a limited offer, so simply complete the attached paperwork and we will send you a unique membership card, your free gift and free reports.

Mulgas Premier Customer Membership Form.

To ensure guaranteed priority service please complete all boxes. Once accepted, we will notify you by e-mail initially of your membership number whilst you await delivery of your membership card.
